SPECIAL MEETING 2020 LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES COMMISSIONERS

At 9:02 a.m. Chairman Wright opened a Special Meeting to discuss Board Legislative Priorities for 2020.

Chairman Wright asked about the current County priorities. Commissioner Osiadacz reviewed the priorities listed by Washington State Association of Counties (WSAC). Those priorities were funding for trial court public defense, foundational public health services, fish passage barrier removal, and opposing unfunded mandates. All Commissioners agreed that they would uphold those priorities.

Local level priorities discussed included the Bloom Pavilion project, the on-going I-90 project, and the on-going Bower's Field project.

Chairman Wright suggested including Mark Cook, Public Works Director, to be invited to the next Legislative Priority meeting to discuss other project ideas.

Commissioner Osiadacz will draft a priority ask list to send to Bill Clarke, Kittitas County Lobbyist.

Meeting adjourned at 9:39 a.m.
