There is a rebuttable presumption to include the protected person's minor children.

[]	For good cause, the	e court is not including the protected person's minor children in this order because:

Warnings to the Restrained Person

You can be arrested even if the protected person or persons invite or allow you to violate the order. You alone are responsible for following the order. Only the court may change the order. Requests for changes must be made in writing.

If you do not obey this order, you can be arrested and charged with a crime.

- The crime may be a misdemeanor, gross misdemeanor, or felony depending on the circumstances. You may also be found in contempt of court.
- You can go to jail or prison, lose your right to possess a firearm or ammunition, and/or pay a fine.
- It is a felony to take or hide a child in violation of this order.
- If you travel to another state or to tribal lands or make the protected person do so, with the intention of disobeying this order, you can be charged with a federal crime.

Firearms and Weapons. If the court approves a full protection order, you may not be able to get or have a gun, firearm, other dangerous weapon, ammunition, or concealed pistol license for as long as the protection order is in place.

Go to the court hearing scheduled on page 1. If you do not, the court may:

- Make this temporary order effective for one year or longer
- Order weapons restrictions, even if that was not requested
- Order other relief requested in the petition
- Order electronic monitoring, payment of costs, and treatment
- Issue a final order that you are required to follow and you may not be served with the order if it is substantially the same as this temporary order

If you are under age 18, your parent/s or legal guardian/s will also be served with this order and should also go to the hearing. The court will decide if someone should be appointed to represent you.
