Deanna Panattoni, Treasurer indicated that their copy machine replacement contract has expired. She explained that the contract was not done well years ago when it was entered into with Cascade Copiers and they have since sold the contract to the Bank of America. She indicated that she has been working on a new contract and has found that it will cost her approximately $780.00 dollars to haul the old machine away. She explained that a letter terminating the maintenance agreement, payments and service changes on their current machine had to be sent by no later than September 30, 2011.

Commissioner Jewell suggested that Deanna meet with Bob Gubser of the Sheriff's department. He indicated that Mr. Gubser has had extremely good luck lately with copy machine contracts.
