Judy Pless, Budget & Finance Manager presented a letter for the Board's consideration. She stated that the City and County have an Interlocal Agreement that allows the County to participate in the City's surplus sale with a predetermined cost. She indicated that this year the County doesn't have enough items to surplus to make it worth participating and that a letter needed to be sent to the City notifying them that this year the County would not be participating in the City surplus sale.

Commissioner Jewell moved to authorize Chair's signature on a letter to City Manager Ted Barkley notifying them that the County would not be participating in the City surplus sale this year. Commissioner O'Brien seconded. Motion carried 3-0.
