SPECIAL MEETING

UPPER DISTRICT COURT PLAN

PUBLIC WORKS

At 11:00 a.m. Chairman Crankovich opened a Special Meeting to discuss the Upper District Court plans.

Patti Johnson, Solid Waste Director/Project Manager provided the Board with blueprints for the Upper District Court remodel project. She stated that she had been meeting with the Upper County Judge and the County Sheriff to discuss transport officers and the possible impacts depending on which plan is accepted. Ms. Johnson reviewed layout options with solutions for the Board to consider that could possibly appease the Judges request. She provided the Board with the current totals of revenues and expenses for the other current County projects. She informed the Board that Juvenile Probation has approached her regarding the potential of there being space to handle and process their "in-custody" cases. She reviewed the Engineers Estimate with the Board and asked if there were any questions.

The Board discussed hallway placement, the break room and whether or not to have one and also discussed the hallway walls being narrowed to allow for a bigger Courtroom.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:25 a.m.
