DEPARTMENT HEAD

IT

Jim Goeben, IT Director requested Board direction on how to proceed with the PDP. He explained that he was receiving mixed directions and felt this would be an appropriate avenue to get a majority vote.

Chairman O'Brien expressed his frustrations with regard to the PDP not moving forward and stated that he wants to see it go live by January 2014. There was discussion on options and the future of the PDP.

Lisa Young, HR Director explained that the PDP gradually got rolled out, so it's not an immediate change for staff and they would be overwhelmed with the total change. Commissioner Jewell explained that he needs meetings set for the PDP in order to progress. He explained that he felt projects that are successful are ones that are met regularly and for him, he's extremely busy and if there isn't something on his calendar it's not likely to be worked on. Chairman O'Brien stated that it was his opinion it would be most effective for him to meet with staff and prepare their presentation to the other Board members.

Commissioner Jewell requested that a meeting be set for two weeks out (11/15/2013) and in the meantime, he would test the PDP program.

Meeting adjourned at 10:20 a.m.
