Subject: PD-24-00001 Roslyn Ridge West - Additional Notice of Application Period

Pat,

As we discussed, there was a clerical error with the Notice of Application that went out on June 20, 2024. Several county departments were not included in the NOA email notification. While there was a publishing in the paper, several county departments did not receive direct communication from CDS, which is standard protocol. These county departments need to be given an opportunity to respond with comments. CDS has emailed these departments this morning and have asked for comments with a deadline of August 7, 2024.

I'll have the comments already on file for you to pick up this afternoon. After August 7, 2024, I'll have any additional comments transmitted to you. This comment period is only for the county departments not included in the original Notice of Application. This comment period does not include a public comment period.

Please accept our sincerest apologies for the clerical error and delay in the project timeline.

Best,
Bradley
