Hi Ellie,

This parcel lies within the Kittitas Reclamation District however as it is not a division of land, does not require submittal of any documents to KRD. It is recommended that the landowner consider the existing irrigation infrastructure as they build to ensure that how their irrigation water gets used on the property will not impact the placement of their dwelling. If the landowner chooses to subdivide this parcel in the future, they will be required to meet the KRD's division guidelines. Please call if there are any questions.

Thanks,

Sara Vickers
