Good afternoon,

I had sent you a Conditional Preliminary Approval notice on 8/17. In order to process your project through to final approval, you'll need to go over the preliminary approval notice and address the comments of the various departments. After that, we can grant final approval. The deadline for getting everything in to us to address the other departments' concerns is 180 days after 8/17/2023.

Let me know if you have further questions.
