Zach,

After review of this proposed boundary line adjustment I have a question as to where the well is located for PN 256236. There is a well located across the property line about 12 feet on the parcel to the south but that is the only well shown in the near vicinity of the home and drainfield on this parcel. If it is a shared well, that would be helpful information.

Thank you, I look forward to your response.
