Good morning Zach,

Thanks for providing me with the comments from interested parties. With regards to the first comment from CCT: I've spoken with our Cultural Resource Specialist at PSE, and we will be coordinating to arrange for a new cultural resource assessment of the project area based on the project scope and areas of impact. The results of that assessment and any associated surveys will be relayed to DAHP and any interested Tribes/entities by our Cultural Resources group in line with DAHP and Historic Preservation Act requirements (as I understand them). Additionally, I do already have an IDP prepared for this project, which will be implemented throughout the project area along with any additional best management practices/caveats that come out of the assessment.

Please let me know if you have or hear of any other questions from me, and thanks again.

Best,

Dylan Marcus (He/Him)
